body to do what you want to do down here, but when we unbracket a bill the usual case is that it goes to the top of General File and the next order of business. So I think the presiding officer should tell us, if we do unbracket this bill what the situation is, because if you look up there you say..you see we've got a whole bunch of bills bracketed, and they may automatically go to the top of General File. So I think we ought to be instructed on this before we vote, because we are going to vote. Because I object.

PRESIDENT: All right. There is an objection. Well, we are going to recess first. The motion before us now is all those in fav or of recessing until 6:30 say aye, those opposed say no. The ayes have it, and we are recessed until 6:30.
